1 Corinthians: A Letter to a Troubled Church

A Healthy View of Leadership

1 Corinthians 3:1-23

The trouble brewing in the church of Corinth was evident by the factions that had developed around particular church leaders. Underlying that kind of fleshly behavior is a significant misunderstanding of Christian leadership. We would do well to avoid the same mistakes of building a church with an unhealthy reliance on ministers, methods, and ministries that are contrary to the foundational message of Christ crucified.

1. Personality-driven divisions are evidence of a fleshly immaturity among believers (vv1-4)
2. Personality-driven divisions demonstrate a faulty view of Christian leadership (vv5-15)
3. Personality-driven divisions reveal an ignorance of the true nature of the church and its inheritance (vv16-23)
