

1 Corinthians: A Letter to a Troubled Church

An Orderly Worship

1 Corinthians 14:26-40

Passages like the one we're studying today can make us cringe, wondering how in the world one can reconcile a good God with the kind of things said in the Bible. In this case, when it comes to the kinds of rules and restrictions placed on the way we gather for worship, why do we need to heed these principles when they seem to not only stifle spontaneity, but to be oppressive to women?

1. The way we gather for worship must reflect the God we worship (vv.26-33a)
2. The way we gather for worship must reflect God's design for men and women (vv. 33b-35)
3. The way we gather for worship must reflect our submission to God (vv. 36-40).
