

God Is: Meditations on the Attributes of God

God is ... Everywhere

Psalms 139:7-12

As finite creatures, we can only be in one place at one time. But God is different. He is everywhere all at once. He is omnipresent. Studying God's omnipresence is an experience that can be comforting, chilling, and confounding – all at once.

1. Defining God's Omnipresence
 - a. God is omnipresent in that he is fully present everywhere all at once; and yet his presence can be experienced differently in different places.

2. Demonstrating God's Omnipresence (Ps 139:7-12; Acts 17:24-27; Ps 16:11; Amos 9:2-3; Jer 23:23-24; Rev 14:10)

3. Drawing Implications of God's Omnipresence
 - a. His omnipresence is comforting to the saved

 - b. His omnipresence is chilling for the unsaved

 - c. His omnipresence is confounding in the person of Christ
