

One New Man in Christ

Ephesians 2:11-22

For this MLK weekend, we want to designate today as Ethnic Harmony Sunday where we'll consider how the gospel calls us to pursue ethnic harmony in our personal lives and in our life together as the church. In our text, we'll see how the blood of Christ has established a unity – and forged an identity – between Christians that runs thicker than blood.

1. The Problem: An alienated humanity

2. The Answer: A united new humanity

3. The Solution: A bloody cross

According to American Worldview Inventory 2022, only 2% of parents of preteens have a biblical worldview and very few parents are searching for individuals and experiences that will promote such a worldview to their children.¹ Therefore, if parents are not teaching their kids, then their beliefs on issues such as gender, sexuality and the value of human life are being shaped by what the world is teaching them. The children who do not attend church have even less of an opportunity to learn the basic concepts of sin, salvation and the practices of Biblical faith. If you want to share God's Word with the children in the community and give them eternal hope, join our Kids' Bible Club team! We teach the children about God and the Bible through Bible lessons, Scripture memory, songs and other activities. We meet Wednesdays from 4-5:30pm at Ashford Santa Fe (4010 W. Bellfort Ave, Houston TX 77025). Please contact Yvonne Lee at ytsanglee@gmail.com for more information or to sign up.
