

Rebuilding the Ruins: A Series in Nehemiah

Rebuilding in Repentance

Nehemiah 9:1-37

After God's word has been read, the Israelites humbly repent in response to that word. However, true repentance is rare in our day because we often harbor too small a view of God, which trivializes our sin. Through this remarkable prayer, we learn how to enlarge our vision of God through repentance. Along with Nehemiah and his people, we discover how repentance stirs us to worship our great God with fullness of heart and gratitude.
