

Galatians: Faith Alone in Christ Alone

A Pure Gospel

Galatians 2:1-10

People have certain ideas about the gospel. Some believe that good works will result in a relationship with God. Others think that Jesus is a moral exemplar to be imitated rather than our savior. These erroneous ideas reveal a deficient understanding of the gospel. If one believes in such error, it results in an impure gospel. What should we do then when we encounter erroneous ideas about the gospel that we have trouble refuting?

1. An impure gospel hinders evangelism

2. God appoints church leaders to guard the purity of the gospel

3. Seek out church leaders to confirm your understanding of the pure gospel so that you may proclaim it faithfully
