Galatians: Faith Alone in Christ Alone

The Law's Impotence

Galatians 3:15-25

The main point Paul has been driving home in Galatians is that the gospel is good news for all. New spiritual life and right standing before God was made available to Gentiles through faith in Christ – without expecting them to adopt Jewish law and customs. But that message prompted accusations of playing fast and loose with Scripture, ignoring commands plainly in the text. And it raised important questions about the Law's continued relevance and role in our lives.

1. The subordinate role of the Law

2. The reflectional role of the Law

3. The custodial role of the Law
