

Faith at Work: Integrating Christ and Your Career

Idolizing Our Work

Luke 16:13-15

Our view of work might fall into one of two categories: live to work or work to live. If we live to work, then we fall into the temptation of idolizing our work. We often think of idols as statues that primitive people worship or inspirational people. But idols represent anything in creation that we love and serve rather than God. Examples of idols include children, perfectionism, leisure, and even our work. How do we avoid idolizing our work?

1. Idolizing work leads to misery not happiness.
2. Idolizing work causes you to look down on God and not up to Him.
3. Choose to honor God so that you don't idolize work.

English Adult Sunday School – Fall 2024

11:00 am – 12:15 pm

Next Sunday marks the start of the fall quarter. We have three classes. Join us to learn more about God, theology, and the Bible. Sunday School classes meet at 11:00 am in the classrooms listed below.

Family Life: A Book Study

Room 115

Led by Chris Lu

Come join us for a long overdue class based on the book study of Single, Dating, Engaged, Married: Navigating Life and Love in the Modern Age by Ben Stuart. The class is mainly for younger singles, but it is open to everyone, and we would appreciate experience and wisdom in discussion groups. You can flip through a sample of this book at the Family Life Resource Center in the lobby. I highly recommend that you get your own copy and read along. It will be a combination of teaching, small group discussions, and panel Q&A.

Systematic Theology Survey (Part 1 of 3)

Room 113

Led by Jason Tarn & Erik Wiest

This survey course will provide you with a strong theological foundation for Christian life and ministry. We will explore key doctrines across the spectrum of systematic theology. In Part One of three consecutive courses, we will cover The Doctrine of Scripture, The Existence and Attributes of God, the Doctrine of Creation, and the Doctrine of Providence.

Old Testament Survey (Part 4 of 6)

Trailer 411

Led by Henry Ow, James Gao, John Hsieh, & Bill Huang

In the 2-year Old Testament Survey track, we will go through the 39 books of the Old Testament by providing a high level overview of each book and its main ideas/themes. The Old Testament helps us understand God's character and is the foundation for the New Testament. Through the Old Testament, we also learn of God's promises and how they point to Jesus. In this quarter, we will journey through the Wisdom literature (the books of Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and the Song of Songs). The format of the class will be a blend of lectures, discussions, small group exercises and sharing applications for our lives. We hope that you can join us!
