Letter to a Faithful Church

Revelation 3:7-13

Churches are always at risk of complacency, resting on the laurels of their past faithfulness. While it's fitting to reflect on and celebrate 50 years of gospel fidelity, our focus, as Houston Chinese Church, should shift to the future – to extending our legacy of faithfulness. To that aim, let us place our hope in and hold fast to the great promises of our Lord.

1. The promise of acceptance and access (vv7-9)

2. The promise of protection and perseverance (vv10-11)

3. The promise of permanence and presence (vv12-13)
