The Second Test

Genesis: 43:1-34

When we fail God, we feel defeated. We fail to avert our eyes from a forbidden image. We fail to refrain from office gossip. We fail to reign in our spending habits and buy another set of golf clubs. Failing God causes us to feel ashamed and dejected. What does God do when we fail him? Does he cast us aside?

- I. Story: God orchestrates events so that Jacob's sons relive their failures to test if they have changed.

- II. Truth: God orchestrates events so that we relive our failures to test if we have changed.

- III. Application: Turn to Jesus who has never failed so that you can experience the change needed to overcome the test.
