Discipleship According to Mark (Part I)

A Man of Authority

Mark 1:16–45

The Gospel according to Mark begins fast and furious. Without a nativity story, we're immediately introduced to Jesus in his public ministry. Everyone, in every scene, is trying to figure out who he is. In our text, we're presented with a man of authority who calls disciples to respond in obedience without hesitation.

1. A great man who possesses great authority

2. A great man who has no interest in being famous

3. A great man who blends great authority with great compassion
